

WORLD FEST

First time ever in USA

Saturday 24, 2009, 12:00-10:00pm

Sunday 25, 2009, 12:00-6:00pm

SARI ZEYBEK

At Addison Circle Park

At Addison Circle Park

Friday, October 23rd, 2009

Reception: at 6:30pm

Show: at 8:00pm

At Eisemann Art Center

University of EGE Conservatory Folk Dance

Group will take you back in their play from

CANAKKALE victory to last days of ATATURK.

This event will be first in USA and will be a great live performance you will never forget.

Don't miss it!

- Folk Dance performances
- Live Turkish Music
- Turkish Kebabs
- Turkish Bakery
- Turkish Bazaar
- Turkish Coffee and Tea House
- Turkish Wedding-Fashion Show
- Gozleme presentation and sale
- Ebru Art
- Children's activities

- -Folk Dance Performances
- Live Turkish Music
- Turkish Kebab and cuisine
- Turkish Bakery
- Turkish Bazaar
- Turkish Coffee and Tea House
- Turkish Wedding
- Ebru Art
- Children's Activities

See updates at www.turant.org

TurkFest in WorldFest Highlights

Three time world champions University of EGE Conservatory Folk Dance Group will be participating TurkFest in WorldFest with their folk dance performances and famous SARI ZEYBEK play.

Folklore occupies a very important place with the Turks, who due to their geographic location, have benefited from a variety of cultures. Turkish folk dances reflect all details of Turkey's different regions lifestyle. The dances that are choreographed with the motifs of typical behaviors and traditional occasions typically focus on notable events. Undoubtedly the most important among these are weddings.

Addison Park's main stage will feature continuous entertainment Turkish music is as diverse as the dances of Turkey. In addition to live performances of Folk dances and Turkish live music, other

Step into a Timeless Story

participants include Fashion Show by Nisan Design, and Turkish-American children's activities will share his/her adventures and mission of inspiring and informing young people. Experience first-hand the hospitality

Prepare yourself for another exciting
festival of Dance, culture and food

that defines Turkish culture as you sip your Turkish coffee and listen to stories passed on for generations. Learn to speak a few phrases of the Turkish language and live "Turkish Wedding" We have brought together artists, musicians, dancers and adventurers from Turkey to introduce DFW community together with the rich artistry that exemplifies all things Turkish, as well as Turkish Kebabs, Borek's, Baklava, Turkish Tea to taste Turkish Cuisine.

With the Turkish Bazaar, Turkish arts and crafts and Jewelry, The WORLDFEST will be your one stop shopping place. After getting your Turkish coffee you can' visits the booths that sell jewelry, carpets and crafts and treat yourself to something Turkish.

